

Where would your family live if you died?

How would you pay the rent if you couldn't work? To keep a roof over your head there are a number of insurances you should consider.

Tenants are rarely offered financial advice, which is why we have partnered with iintegra-T, to offer you essential insurance advice. Mortgaged home-owners take life insurance to provide a debt-free family home if they die. If you would want the same for your family, speak to iintegra-T for:

- ◆ Whole of market insurance range
- ◆ Fantastic rewards & discounts included
(See overpage)
- ◆ Personalised recommendation
- ◆ Great value premiums

You don't need a mortgage to have life insurance.

A correctly insured tenant is what landlords want and more likely to be accepted for the best properties!

Why wait until you get a mortgage to get life cover? It's not worth the risk.
Contact iintegra-T now, to protect your family and you could save more than the cost of your insurance!
